

PRESS RELEASE

Kidmans Partners and Executive Director Manish Sundarjee shortlisted for prestigious industry awards

Kidmans Partners is in the running to take out one of Australia's most coveted SMSF awards.

The firm and Executive Director Manish Sundarjee have been shortlisted as a finalist in seven categories at the state-based 2017 SMSF and Accounting Awards hosted by SMSF Adviser, Australia's top publication for SMSF professionals.

The inaugural SMSF and Accounting Awards will recognise individuals and businesses that are making their mark in SMSF and accounting advice by championing professionalism, quality advice and innovation.

Founded in 2000, Kidmans Partners offers a range of professional financial services to clients, including Wealth Management and Superannuation services.

Managing editor of SMSF and Accounting, Katarina Taurian, said that the winners “represent a cross-section of this state’s outstanding professional talent, pointing to an absolute dedication to delivering specialist, unique advice to a burgeoning client base”.

“Some top-performing firms and professionals are focused on doing business in their home states and locales, and we are excited to acknowledge the unique excellence and expertise they are bringing to their client base,” she said.

Manish Sundarjee, Executive Director at Kidmans Partners said he is humbled by the nomination.

“That Kidmans Partners has been recognised for its excellent contribution to the SMSF and Accounting industry reinforces the strength of our brand in connecting with our target market and clients,” he added.

The winners will be announced at a gala dinner in Melbourne on 16 November 2017.